ORDER ON DISCOVERY DISPUTE
FILED AS ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION

19 Re: Dkt. No. 383

20 This Court is in receipt of Plaintiffs' administrative motion regarding setting a schedule for 21 resolution of disputed 30(b)6 deposition topics and dates. Dkt. 383, 384. The motion, like its
22 predecessor filed by Defendant at Dkt. 352, is a fight over the size of the table at which the Parties
23 will meet and confer to resolve a substantive dispute, and as such is not a proper use of judicial
24 resources. Counsel on both sides in this matter can and must do better. Each side must promptly
25 engage following a request to meet and confer. If the matter is unresolved, the Parties are to 26 promptly prepare a joint statement in accordance with this Court's standing order.

27 In the Court's own interest of efficiency, it will deem the motion a joint discovery submission
28 and ORDERS as follows:

- 29 • No later than Saturday, January 15, 2022, Google shall serve formal objections and 30 responses to Plaintiffs' three Rule 30(b)6 notices and identify designees for each topic not 31 in dispute;
- 32 • No later than Monday, January 17, 2022, Martin Luther King Day, the Parties will 33 meet and confer on Google's objections and identify the areas that remain in dispute;
- 34 • No later than January 18, 2002, at noon, Plaintiffs will provide Google with their portion 35 of a joint statement;

1 • No later than January 18, 2022, at 6 p.m., Google will provide Plaintiffs with its portion
2 of the joint statement;

3 • The Parties' meet and confer efforts are to continue concurrently with the exchange of 4 positions.

5 • No later than January 19, 2022, the Parties are to file a joint statement addressing any
6 remaining issues.

7 The foregoing schedule may be adjusted pursuant to mutual agreement of the Parties.

8 SO ORDERED.

9 Dated: January 13, 2022
